ROOM 21 NEWS

This term, students in Room 21 have been learning how to write narratives. We hope you enjoy reading some of our examples.

Across the Spider Verse

Once upon a time in America, Farlands Square City, there lived a boy named Peter Parker who was always getting bullied. In America National Square City, people are kind and helpful to each other. There are lots of shops and parks; people rarely fight, and most of the time, they spend time with their families and friends.

But one day, in National Pre-First College, there was a dangerous spider named Spider Number 47. It bit the boy. Then the boy slowly became Spiderman, developing powers such as spider senses and spider webs. He was happy with his powers and sought revenge against the bullies.

However, disaster struck in America National Farlands Square City—a fire broke out everywhere. You could see people dying, burning, and screaming, and smell smoke everywhere so thick that people couldn't breathe. Life seemed hopeless, and people couldn't enjoy themselves. So, Spiderman decided to save the people, since he was kind, smart, and strong thanks to his powers.

It all happened because a scientist created the spider for himself to become Spiderman, but it bit the wrong person. Then Spiderman started to help people and restore civilisation, seeking revenge against the scientist. After the war, everyone became friends, and the bullies began to act kindly. Their lives returned to normal.

Lily and the Wizard

Once upon a time, in a castle in the middle of a big city called Marygold—located in a very small country at the centre of the world—there lived a princess named Lily. Lily had magical powers, but she couldn't control them. One day, Lily's sisters decided to call a wizard to help her use her powers.

As the wizard arrived, he tricked them and took Lily's sisters away. He said, "Call oooo. Call Douglas, the taxi." Soon, Lily followed his instructions and called. The taxi arrived and took her to the wizard, but the wizard's cave was so dark. However, she gathered her courage and entered and asked the wizard, "Where is my sister?". The wizard replied, "They are far away. It will take 100 years for them to reach the wizard's cave." Lily used her magic to trick the wizard and minimise his size. She asked him to bring her sisters, and he did so. They sent the minimised wizard to the castle, but the wizard forgot all his spells.

Storm Days

There was a kitten named Lily. She was a beautiful kitten living with her best person, Mia. Mia was the person who helped the kitten; Lily loved her as a mum. One stormy, rainy day, the kitten went to the backyard of their home. The clouds changed to grey and started raining in a strong way that she had never seen before. Lily was scared, so she ran into the forest.

Mia was drinking coffee at home until she noticed that Lily wasn't at home. She ran outside searching for Lily but couldn't find anything, so she called the police, but they didn't find anything either. Mia was upset because Lily was like her daughter.

The forest was spooky; there were bears, tigers, and lions, and there weren't any cute little animals in the forest. She was thinking that one of the dangerous animals might have eaten Lily and was worrying about other negative things. After five years, Mia moved houses but was not happy because all her memories with her kitten were in her old house. Mia started printing Lily's photos and hanging them on the house walls. She couldn't stop herself and cried as much as she could, with tears on her cheeks.

One day, there was a cat that was staring at Mia. Mia saw her; she was the same colour as Lily, but Mia didn't know her. The cat kept staring at her. Mia opened the glass door, and the cat was still staring at her. Mia noticed the resemblance, looked at the photo of Lily, then looked at the cat. She stood up, hugged her, and called her Lily. The cat was happy, too. On that same day, another storm happened. They sat together happily, the cat ate food and Mia drank coffee.

Mr Clown

He always feels tough, cool, and happy. He sees a lot of people laughing, happy, and nice. He thinks that he is funny, a clown, happy, and cool. People think that he is a famous person and funny. He eats normal food like other people, and his favourite food is pizza. He lives in Melbourne, Australia, but now he has passed away. He was 19 years old when he was a clown.

His job was being a clown and a doctor. He loved being a clown because he could make people laugh and be happy. His problem was that he couldn't walk properly and he didn't get money for being a clown; he just wanted to make people laugh and be happy. The only thing that brought him money was being a doctor. He worked just to earn money and get married.

He is a funny person and always made people laugh by making funny body shapes or other things. He always brought his food to his job. He had two brothers and no sisters. His mum and dad died.

He felt good since he became a doctor and was lucky. He only loves being a doctor, and he is the boss at his job. People call him Mr Clown. He even had one puppy and loved his puppy.

When his mum and dad died, he couldn't get married, so he wanted to visit his cousin's house. He stayed there for a week and asked his cousin's mum to find a girl for him, then return to Australia. After two days, his cousin's mum found a beautiful and kind girl. He married that girl and started a new life. He thanked his cousin's mum and returned to Australia. He bought a new house and went back to his home.

Event of the Hunter and the Little Lion

One day, someone stole the lion baby, but nobody saw him. Only one person knows: she. The hunter thinks it is a tribe that wants to eat him. Maybe the three little boys are involved. The hunter said to himself, "Well, I will get him or not. I'll not do it," said another, "I have no right to get that boy." The hunter's brother asked, "Why did you say that?" "I have no right to get him." "I must go now," said the hunter. "You're right, I'll come with you. Let's just go now."

Talking About Who Did It

To this day, the hunter and his brother are looking for the lion. The lion cub is gone. He was little and cute. He was taken by the tribe or the three boys. The hunter is very upset that this happened because he liked them and the lion. The lion was in the water; the family is sad. The hunter has to help him. He is happy with their family; the little one is small and cute. He is the only one the hunter has. He is a baby, and now he is gone.

The hunter doesn't want the animal to eat him; he is the loved one," said the hunter.

Never Give Up

He sets out to find his little one and bring it back to his family. He tries to get information from others, but nobody knows. "It must be the animal," the hunter thought. The mother knew, and there was a fight. The hunter heard the fight and he looked for the one he was hunting. For days, they searched, and finally, he stopped the threat. He was so happy that he jumped, and they got the cub.

The End...

It's not the end yet! Because it was not the lord, so they must get it back. The hunter woke up, brushed his teeth, ate food, and finally took off. "I am ready to go," he said. He took everything he needed, went up to the hill, and checked everything before proceeding. The man, the king, returned.

Adelaide Oval Excursion

On Wednesday 27 May, students from Room 8 and Room 11 went on an excursion to the South Australian Museum and Adelaide Oval.

Both classes caught the Metro bus into the city and walked to the South Australian Museum. At the museum, students explored a range of interesting exhibits, including ancient fossils, Egyptian mummies, and native Australian animals.

South Australian Museum

After exploring the museum, we made our way to Adelaide Oval, where we learned about the history of one of Australia's most iconic and famous sporting venues. We explored areas usually reserved for players and officials, including VIP areas. Students also had the exciting opportunity to sit in players' seats and were given a behind-the-scenes look at the Sheffield Shield and heritage scoreboard.

Students had a fantastic day filled with new experiences and fond memories.

A big thank you to staff and volunteers who helped make the day possible.

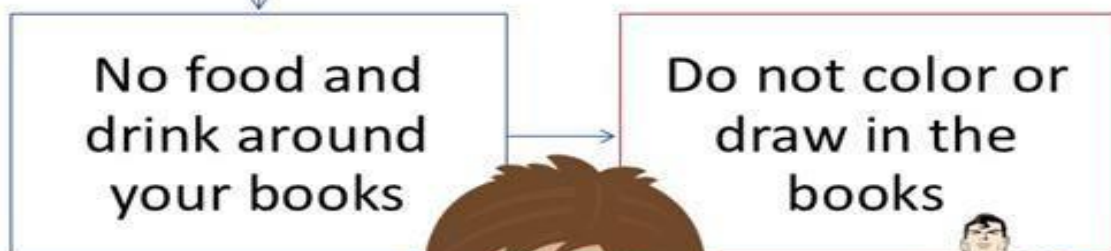

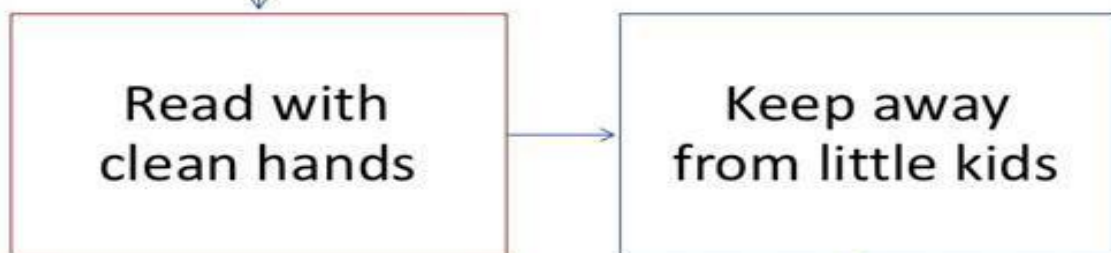

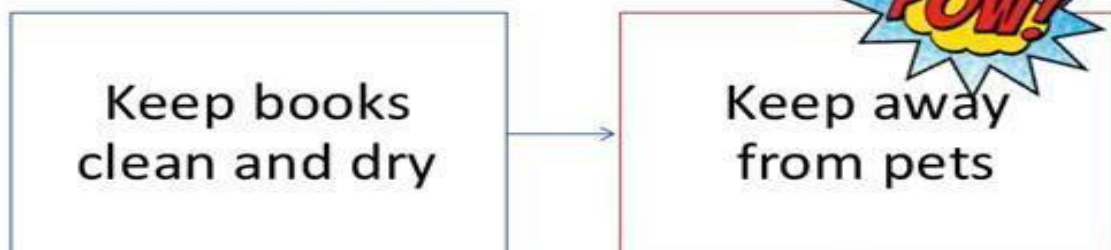

LIBRARY NEWS

Unfortunately, we have had quite a few books returned recently that have been damaged beyond repair. We do understand that accidents do happen, but if we can remind our students of our Book Care Rules (below).

We would prefer to purchase new books rather than replace damaged ones.

Thank you for your support in this. Library Staff.
