CONGRATULATIONS – MAX DONALDSON SAPSASA District Soccer Selection!

We are thrilled to announce that Max Donaldson, one of our talented Year 6 students, has been selected to represent the Salisbury East SAPSASA District soccer team. This is a significant achievement and a result of Max's dedication, hard work, and outstanding sportsmanship.

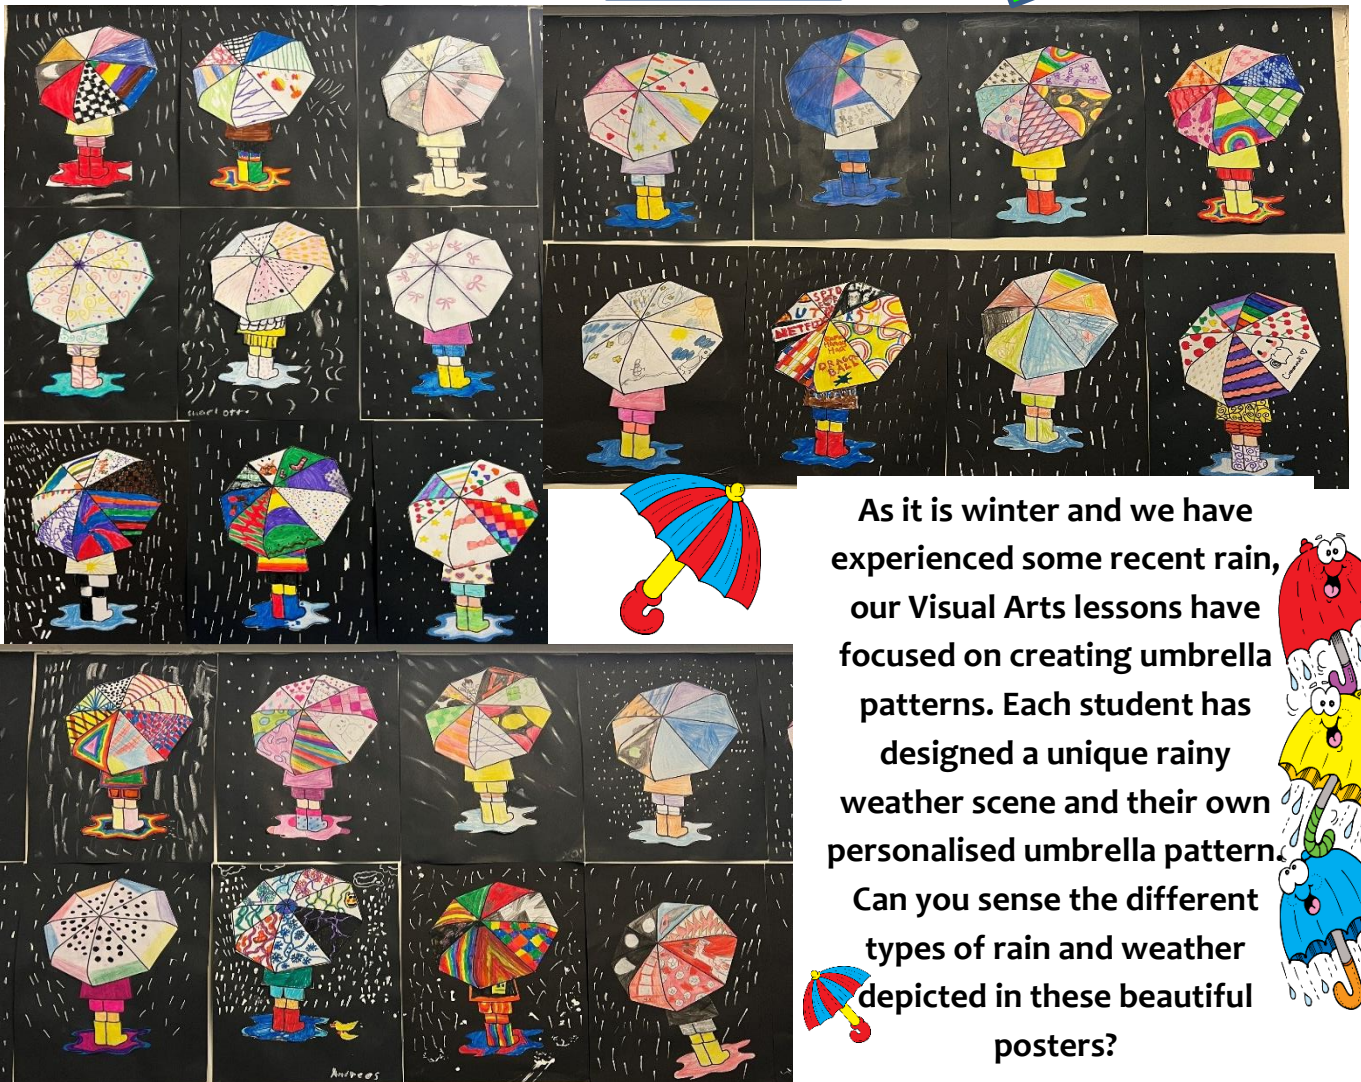

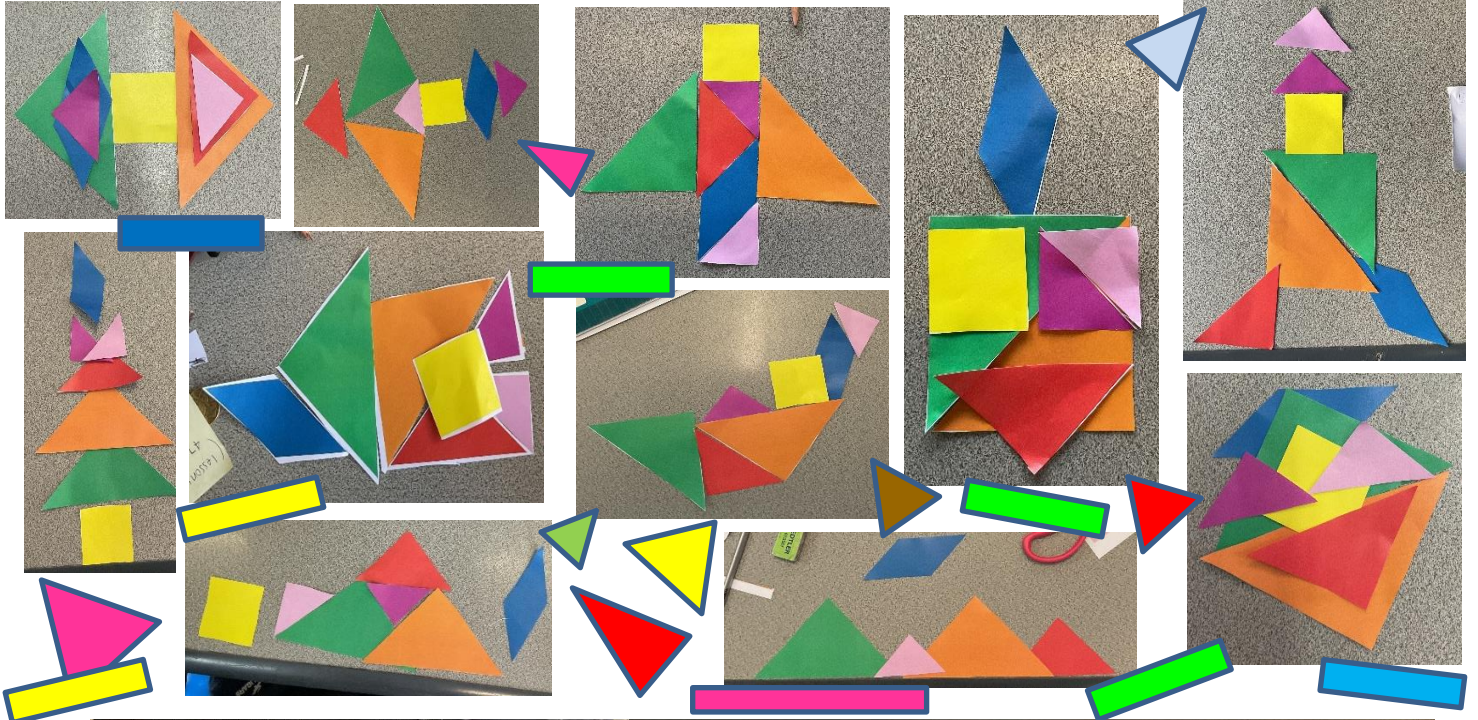

The entire Para Hills West Primary School community is very proud of Max's accomplishment. We look forward to supporting him as he competes in the upcoming SAPSASA State Carnival from 5 – 7 August. We have no doubt that Max will represent our school and district with great skill and pride.

Well done, Max!

ROOM 4 NEWS

We are wrapping up the term by exploring shapes in Room 4. Take a look at some of the wonderful creations made by our Room 4 students. Can you guess what they represent?

As it is winter and we have experienced some recent rain, our Visual Arts lessons have focused on creating umbrella patterns. Each student has designed a unique rainy weather scene and their own personalised umbrella pattern. Can you sense the different types of rain and weather depicted in these beautiful posters?

REFUGEE WEEK NEWS

Refugee Week Youth Poster Awards Exhibition

Congratulations to Zoash (Rm1A) and Latifa (Rm10), who attended the 2026 Refugee Week Youth Poster Exhibition and Presentation of Awards Ceremony on Friday 19 June at the Adelaide College of the Arts.

Both students were recognised for their outstanding artwork, which was selected as part of the 76 finalists from more than 300 entries received across the state.

Their artworks are currently on display in the Refugee Week Youth Poster Exhibition in the Foyer Gallery of the Adelaide Festival Theatre from Monday until Friday 10 July.

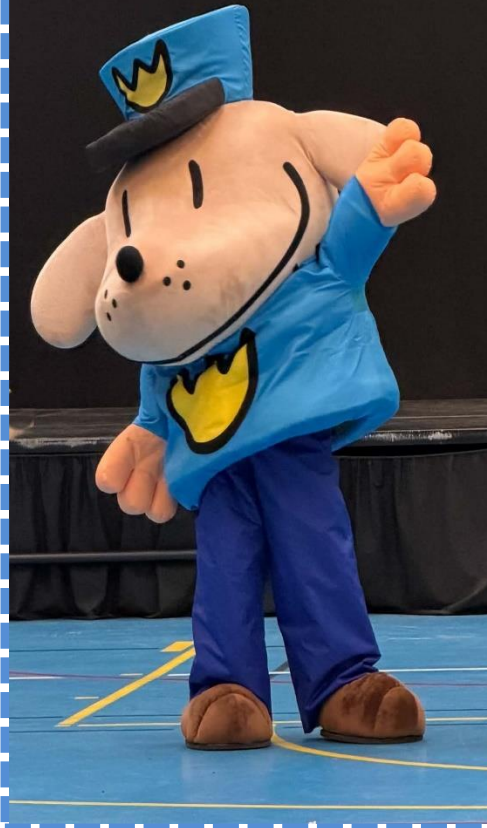

Following its time at the Festival Centre, the exhibition will tour extensively throughout metropolitan and regional galleries across South Australia until April/May 2027, allowing a wider audience to view and appreciate the students' creative work.

We are incredibly proud of Zoash and Latifa for this outstanding achievement and congratulate them on representing our school so well.
